

DIALOGMUSEUM – Der Besuch der Sinne macht!

A special experience is waiting for the visitors of DialogMuseum. It is enriching the city of Frankfurt with its unusual concept. Andreas Heinecke developed the idea for an exhibition more than 27 years ago. In this exhibition you cannot see anything, but in return you can discover a lot. Today, "Dialogue in the Dark" as an exhibition concept is successful internationally. It came back to Frankfurt in 2005. DialogMuseum is a private social enterprise aiming at giving a chance to disabled and disadvantaged people. The exhibition "Dialogue in the Dark" contains six different rooms which represent daily situations. These rooms are completely dark and the guides leading your way are blind. DialogMuseum offers a 60-minute standard tour (4 rooms) and 90-minute special tour (6 rooms).

One of the rooms is a museum room with changing installations from museums and artists. Some of the previous partners have been Deutsches Architekturmuseum (German Museum of Architecture), Museum für Kommunikation (Museum of Communication), and Städel. Until the next change of scenes we offer goal wall shooting.
